1. Housing Instability/insecurity (separate from car/couch surfing, etc): received 3-day pay or quit OR Received eviction notice. Has lost income and anticipates not being able to pay rent in the next 1-2 months

2. Recently housed: (up to 1 year) and previously homeless

3. Transitional housing is temporary housing for certain segments of the homeless population, including working homeless people who are earning too little money to afford long-term housing. Transitional housing is set up to transition residents into permanent, affordable housing. It is not in an emergency homeless shelter, but usually a room or apartment in a residence with support services.
